DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Farooq et al. (USPN 6719188 B2) in view of Makhijani (USPN 4321738).

Farooq teaches a flip chip tool for removing and replacing chips comprising a cutting area with a mechanical cutting tool (blade 16), which cuts the electrodes to uniform heights (abstract, figures 2A-2C and col 4 line 13 – col 5 line 32). However there is no disclosure of chip conveying means.

Makhijani teaches a flip chip bonder with a chuck table which can be moved (col 4 lines 37-67), take and take out areas, a cutting area with a mechanical cutting tool (24) which cuts the electrodes to uniform heights (figure 3, col 3 line 49 – col 4 line 36) and chip conveying means (col 2 line 59 - 3 line 12).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to employ a conveyor, which would facilitate automation and thereby allow processing of multiple components on a continuous basis.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Fluid is typically supplied as an alternative to mechanical cutting with a blade not in combination with a blade. See Farooq.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Smith et al. (USPN 4976392, wire cutter), Ward (USPN 3735911, movable chuck, cutting tool, conveyor) and Merdaco et al. (USPN 6698649 B2).

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
